Kurt and Brenda are passionate about family game night. “Survey says” that bonding, making memories and enjoying snacks over family-friendly games is the most entertaining way to get seven kids to settle at home on a Friday evening!

Annually, the Warner’s extend an invitation to hundreds of kindred spirits to join them in their make-shift living room at Hangar One for Celebrity Game Night. The laid-back evening is dedicated to good old-fashioned, competitive fun in benefit of their nonprofit, Treasure House, a unique living community for the differently abled, inspired by their son, Zack.

Each event honors an athlete who has a heart for the community and strong affinity for giving back. Honorees have included the Coyotes’ Shane Doan, the Cardinals’ Larry Fitzgerald and former Diamondback legend, Louis Gonzales.

Let’s make a deal. Your sponsorship of Celebrity Game Night, Treasure House’s sole fundraising event, significantly impacts the difference for the intellectually and developmentally disabled population that call Treasure House home. Critical aspects of life at Treasure House include the funding of Life Coaches, Community Assistants, Nutritionists, transportation, programming and so much more. The nonprofit heavily relies on your support, and our residents cannot wait to meet you and show enthusiastic gratitude.

As a sponsor, get your brand seen by the Warner’s closest friends: the Treasure House network, Arizona’s movers and shakers, stars from around the country, community supporters and of course, fans!

So, come on down! Your involvement will help Treasure House raise the necessary funds to further its mission.

His 1,378 career receptions are the most by any player in NFL history with a single team and rank second all-time behind only Hall of Fame WR Jerry Rice (1,549). His 17,083 career receiving yards also rank second in NFL history while his 120 career TD receptions rank sixth all-time.
